1. The so-called Construction Enterprise (Építési Vállalat) was placed under the Ministry of Constructions following the dissolution of the Ministry of Building Materials Industry in June 1953. The enterprise's head offices are located at 19 Éva Street, Budapest VII.
2. The enterprise's duties are: planning and execution of repairs, alterations, and enlargement of existing building materials factories under the Ministry of Construction; and construction of new factory buildings and apartment buildings for factory workers. Approximately 1,000 workers make up the permanent staff, and the enterprise has the authority to recruit additional labor at the sites of construction. The central office in Budapest has a total staff of from 60 to 70 engineers, draftsmen, and clerks.
3. The following construction was done in 1953:
  - a. Baking and drying installations for brick factories at Fertőszéplak, Szombathely, Nagyatád, Debrecen, and Békéscsaba.
  - b. Additional buildings for the glass factories at Ajka and Salgotarján.
  - c. Dismantling of the old glass factory at Parád and initial work on a new factory to be built there.
  - d. Enlargement of the china factory at Herend.
  - e. Additional buildings for the cement factory at Szentendre.
4. Although the enterprise has not undertaken any large-scale building of workers' housing since the change in the Government in 1953, it has begun to stress repair work to damaged buildings and division of large apartments into small workers' apartments.
